

David's Tavern on Brown Square

— Where Friends & Family Feel at Home —
Located in the Historic Garrison Inn

David's Tavern offers you the opportunity to dine in the former home of Moses Brown, who in the late 18th century was the second wealthiest man in Newburyport. By investing in maritime trade and real estate, and by manufacturing his own New England rum, Moses Brown was able to build his residence which he named The Brown Square House, and is now home to the Garrison Inn and David's Tavern.

At David's Tavern, you will find creative cuisine in a casual atmosphere. You may choose from our main dining room on the street level, or our popular cozy brick-walled pub with live entertainment and raw bar downstairs. Our dinner menu offers a variety of tastes for every palate.
